

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming and In the Bleak Mid-Winter arr. Glenn Haynes FOR SAXOPHONE QUARTET—Among the loveliest Christmas arrangements ever made for Sax quartet, these two pieces are scored for soprano, alto, tenor, and baritone. They may be heard on A New Century Christmas , recorded by New Century Saxophone Quartet. (5:00+2:20=7:20) *R-18	SX-19 $9.00	We Wish You A Merry Christmas arr. Benjamin Boone FOR SAXOPHONE QUARTET—A varied arrangement of this familiar Christmas song, it starts in a traditional style, becomes more "pop-ballad," and ends with a little Cajun spice. Recorded on A New Century Christmas by New Century Saxophone Quartet. Scored for soprano, alto, tenor, and baritone Saxophones, with optional woodblock or castanet. (5:06) *R-18	SX-16 $11.00
Nocturne William Noll FOR SOPRANO SAXOPHONE and PIANO—Composed specifically for the soprano Saxophone to emphasize the beauty and lyrical quality of the instrument, this would be suitable on any treble Bb instrument. Excellent for students. It has been recorded on the CD Shadows (Intersound #CCD 3470). (4:50) [II]	SX-1 $8.00	What Child Is This? arr. Brad Hubbard FOR SAXOPHONE QUARTET—Arranged for New Century Saxophone Quartet's CD A New Century Christmas , this arrangement displays a unique use of rhythm within the traditional harmonies of a very familiar melody. Instrumentation is for soprano, alto, tenor, & baritone Saxophones. (2:35) *R-18	SX-15 $9.50
O Northern Star Stephen Pollock FOR SAXOPHONE QUARTET—Reminiscent of many an old folk song from the British Isles, this tune was written for New Century Saxophone Quartet. The melody is passed along in turn, allowing each musician to take advantage of the singing quality of the Saxophone. Scored for soprano, alto, tenor, and baritone. (4:30)	SX-20 $6.00	The Whistler and His Dog Arthur Pryor, arr. James Boatman FOR SAXOPHONE QUARTET and OPTIONAL PERCUSSION—A great encore piece, frequently performed by the New Century Saxophone Quartet. A fun addition to any program. (3:00)	SX-9 $10.00

Trio Sonata for alto flute, cello and piano, opus 21 TF-16
T. G. Febonio $30.00
A structurally Classical work, yet Romantic in spirit. The movements are Allegro, Poco andante, Allegro. A part for C flute is also included. (16:00) [II+]

Trios, Op. 26, Nos. 1-3 PMD-23
Giovanni Giuseppe Cambini, ed. Paul M. Douglas $24.00
FOR FLUTE, VIOLIN, AND VIOLA—A welcome addition to the flute/violin/viola repertoire. These are truly “concertante” trios; all three parts are quite independent, each one bearing its share of solo and supporting roles. (ca. 10:00-12:00 ea.=ca.33:00) [III+]

Trios, Op. 26, Nos. 4-6 PMD-07
Giovanni Giuseppe Cambini, trans. Paul M. Douglas $22.00
FOR FLUTE, VIOLIN, & VIOLA—Cambini is credited with “inventing” the woodwind quintet (fl/ob/clar/horn/bsn). In his turbulent life, he composed a large number of chamber works as well as symphonies, concerti, and operas. This edition, believed to be the first since the undated original, was prepared from a set of period parts held in Paris, and carefully corrects a great number of Cambini’s copyist’s inconsistencies in phrasing and articulation. (10:00 ea.=30:00) [III]

Trio Sonata in G Major PMD-30
Antonio Lotti, ed. Paul M. Douglas $20.00
FOR FLUTE, VIOLIN, AND CONTINUO—Originally for flute, viola da gamba, and continuo, the high viola da gamba tessitura transcribes beautifully to the violin, and with few exceptions could also be played with 2 flutes and keyboard. This is a classic chamber example of the music of singer, organist, and composer Lotti (1667-1740), whose style bridges the established Baroque and emerging Classical periods. (6:30) [III+]

Trio sonata in G Major PMD-31
Jean Joseph de Mondonville, ed. Paul M. Douglas $20.00
FOR FLUTE, VIOLIN, AND CONTINUO—Mondonville (1711-1772), a younger contemporary of Rameau, enjoyed considerable success in his day, especially for his vocal output. Although part 2 of this chamber trio is written specifically for the violin (contains double stops), it is easily adaptable for a 2nd flute. The unfigured bass has been realized by the editor. (8:40) [II+]

Trois Poèmes PMD-09
Paul M. Douglas $9.00
Abendlandschaft (Evening Landscape); Desert Sunrise; Seaside Lament
FOR VOICE, FLUTE, CELLO, & PIANO—Three songs based on poems by family and friends of the composer. (4:30+4+6=14:30) [III+]

The Twelve Days of Christmas CM-46
arr. Michael Isaacson $12.50
FOR CHAMBER TRIO—An easy arrangement designed to allow equal participation for all players with maximum contrast. Good for either wind or string trio, with 2 treble lines and 1 bass line. (3:15) [II]

Two Irish Songs FH-7
arr. Bob Litterell $13.00
Londonderry Air, Carolan’s Quarrel with the Landlady
FOR HARP QUINTET—(see Flute and Harp)

Two Trios PMD-19
Friedrich Kuhlau, arr. Paul M. Douglas $12.00
FOR FLUTE; FLUTE, OBOE, OR VIOLIN; AND CLARINET OR VIOLA—From “Sonatinas for Piano,” these pieces are light and lyrical in the late classical style. A welcome addition to the trio repertoire. (ca. 6:00 ea.=12:00) [III+]

Two Voluntaries CM-74
Henry Purcell, arr. Nora Kile $16.00
FOR CHAMBER TRIO—These Voluntaries are ideal for weddings or any celebratory occasion. Scored for maximum flexibility: part I- C flute; part II- C flute, alto flute, or violin; part III- bass flute, cello/bassoon. All parts included. (3:00 each) [II]

Valses Nobles et Sentimentales MP-7
Maurice Ravel, arr. Mark Popkin $75.00
FOR DOUBLE WOODWIND QUINTET & BASS—Inspired by the piano waltzes of Franz Schubert, these were originally for piano and later orchestrated. A remarkable transcription. (19:00) [III+]

Variations and Fugue on a Theme of Handel, Op. 24 CM-11
Johannes Brahms, arr. Mark A Popkin $32.00
FOR WOODWIND QUINTET—This work consists of 25 variations and a fugue, allowing each instrument ample opportunity for virtuosity. A major addition to the woodwind quintet library, this piece would be excellent for recital programming. Score and parts included. (ca.15:00) [IV-V]

Variations on a Theme by Tchaikovsky, Op. 35a MP-17
Anton Arensky, arr. Mark Popkin $20.00
FOR WOODWIND QUINTET—From the orchestral arrangement of Arensky’s “Quartet No. 2” for strings, based on one of Tchaikovsky’s “Sixteen Songs for Children, Op. 54” (“The Legend”). This beautiful short set of variations works extremely well for winds. (15:20) [III]

The Virgin Mary Had A Baby Boy CM-47
arr. Michael Isaacson $11.50
*FOR CHAMBER TRIO—A West Indian folk song that is perfect for the holiday season. Scored for either wind or string trio, with 2 treble lines and 1 bass line. (2:54) R-13 [II]

Vocalise and Spanish Steps CM-64
Charles Wadsworth $15.00
FOR SOPRANO, FLUTE, and PIANO—Two fun, yet virtuosic chamber works by Spoleto USA founder Charles Wadsworth. The flute and voice lines of each are given equal billing and showcase the natural sonority of this combination. (4:50) [III]

Watertown Dances TF-10
T. G. Febonio $36.00
FOR ALTO FLUTE, BASS CLARINET, AND GUITAR—Four dance movements, each a different style, with a unique approach. Includes an additional bass part in C to allow for a bassoon, cello, bass, or piano to substitute for the bass clarinet. (var.) [III]

Where Would I Go? FT-20
Carl Riley $13.00
FOR VOICE and FLUTE(s)—(see Flute Trios)

Wildacres Suite CM-55
Brad Hubbard $8.00
FOR WOODWIND or SAXOPHONE TRIO—Composed as a collaboration between the Wildacres Flute Retreat and the James Houlik Saxophone Retreat, this piece can be performed with soprano Sax or flute, clarinet or tenor Sax, and bassoon or baritone Saxophone in any combination. All parts are included. A delightful work in five movements. (2:40) [III]

A Winter Suite CM-44
Thomas Schudel $22.50
Prologues; Dance; Interlude; Finale
FOR WOODWIND QUINTET—A story about children who live on the prairie, the movements depict the dawning of a new day, winter games, the peacefulness after a winter storm, and the crows return bringing the promise of spring. (4:20) [III+]
