PICCOLO ALONE

Balinese Fantasies P-11
David Loeb $10.00
Composed during visits to Bali and Japan, these fantasies evoke traditional music through ever-present scale patterns. Three previous volumes, "Six Preludes" (P-2), "Four Preludes, Vol. II" (P-5), and "Preludes, Vol. IV" (P-9) combine well with these new works for inclusion on any recital program. Written for solo piccolo, but also effective on C flute. Honorable Mention - 2002 NFA Newly Published Music Competition. (var.) [III]

The Bird Fancier's Delight P-3
arr. Laurence Trott $8.00
Pieces written for birds to learn! Collected in 1717. (7:30) [II]

Desperate Measures P-10
Doug Borwick $8.00
Written for solo piccolo, the movements are inspired by watching a mother live through the day in a multiple-child household! (18:00) [IV]

The Fearless Whistler P-8
Michael Isaacson $12.00
The Fearless Whistler, Whistles in Isolation, Whistles in Terror, Whistles While Chased, Whistles in Triumph
A little drama where each movement is an exciting episode in the adventures of our fearless hero (or heroine). (8:10) [III-IV]

Five Fifin' Festivals P-20
Michael Isaacson $10.00
I. Danza Venida (Cinco de Mayo); II. Abbondanza! (Feast of San Gennaro); III. Karamu (Kwanzaa); IV. Shamrockin' (St. Patrick's Day); V. Freedom Fifin' (July 4th)
Celebrating colorful festivals and joyful music, these five pieces incorporate folk rhythms and stylistic dances. (7:30) [III]

Four Japanese Legends P-12
David Loeb $10.00
The Night-Crying Boulder, Zazanza no Matsu, The Nocturnal Conclave of Foxes, The Door-Carp
Legends for solo piccolo, each relating to the visual arts as narration. Freeform and wonderful for performance. (6:30) [III]

Four Preludes, Vol. II P-5
David Loeb $10.00
From award-winning composer David Loeb, enjoy more melodies from traditional patterns of pipe music from Cambodia, Korea, China, and Japan. (var.) [III]

The Golden Age of the Virtuoso Piccolo Jan Gippo A collection of 18 solos from the heyday of community bands. Tremendous fun to play and great exercise in piccolo virtuosity. (var.)	PP-825 $30.00 [IV-V]	6/8 Dances for Solo Piccolo Michael Isaacson Dances designed to explore three sides of the piccolo's personality. An excellent work to add interest to a program! Also ideal as a solo flute piece. (4:50) [III]	P-6 $10.00
Icky, Picky, Piccolo Michael Isaacson A theater piece as well as a piccolo etude. Definitely an opportunity to show off and have fun! (3:00)	P-16 $8.00 [III]	Six Preludes David Loeb Melodies from traditional patterns of pipe music of China, Korea, Tibet, Japan, Bali, and Laos. Winner of the NFA 1983 Newly Published Music Competition. (var.)	P-2 $12.00 [III]
Inky Dinky Piccolo Michael Isaacson Variations on "Mademoiselle from Armentières," playfully incorporating fragments from other French folk songs. For solo piccolo. (3:30)	P-19 $8.00 [III]	Three Tibetan Fantasias David Loeb Three movements reflecting Tibetan culture, with Indian and Chinese influences interacting and impacting the simplistic, yet unpredictable style. (var.)	P-17 $12.00 [III]
La Tourterelle (The Turtle Dove) Eugène Damaré, arr. Louis Lewis FOR SOLO PICCOLO AND FLUTE QUARTET (OR BAND) (see Flute Choir)	FC-838 $18.00	Toot Suite Klaus G. Roy (see Flute Alone)	F-12 $8.00
The Little Hornpipe Ricky Lombardo An unaccompanied piccolo solo. Great for students who are interested in working on fundamentals. (2:00)	P-7 $10.00 [II]	Top O' The Evening, an Irish Suite arr. Laurence Trott The Humors of Glin, Ned of the Hill, Donnybrook Fair, Whiskey in the Jar, Teresa Halpins Reel, The Harp That Once, Contented I Am or The Battle Eve Seven delightful pieces with an Irish flair. (8:50)	P-4 $10.00 [IV]
Lyric Pieces David Loeb Six individual movements originally written for various Japanese flutes (shinobue, ryuteki, shakuhachi), with a concentration on expressivity and control. Incorporates some ornaments which players of the traditional instruments might well have added. (var.)	P-22 $20.00 [III]	Whistle Music T. G. Febonio Twelve rustic pieces for tin whistle or piccolo, flute, violin, oboe, mandolin, etc. Fun short pieces that can be used in any combination for a new twist on a program. Great for encores, too! (var.)	TF-1 $8.00 [III]
Nightcolors David Loeb Inspired by 17th century Dutch paintings and 19th & early 20th century Japanese wood-block prints, both of which contained night views. Two delightful movements conveying nocturnal scenery. For solo piccolo. (5:30)	P-15 $12.00 [III]	Whistle Music, Book 2 T. G. Febonio Twelve more rustic pieces for tin whistle or just about any other treble instrument. Have fun mixing all of these, or using them as demonstrations for different instruments. (var.)	TF-2 $8.00 [II+]
Of Dreams and Promises David Loeb Two movements that speak to experiences we all have, both happy and unhappy, real and unreal. For solo piccolo. (var.)	P-18 $8.00 [III]	Whistle Music, Book 3 T. G. Febonio By popular demand, twelve more rustic pieces for tin whistle, or just about any other treble instrument. (var.)	TF-14 $10.00 [II+]
Piccolo Perspectives David Loeb Gokusourin, Unhak, Winter Dances A small collection of three pieces, with varying character. Great performance works! (var.)	P-21 $20.00 [III]
Preludes, Volume III David Loeb The pieces in Volume III of the series of Preludes for solo piccolo are as equally delightful as those in the other volumes, and are perfect in combination with them. Others in this group are: "Six Preludes" (P-2), "Four Preludes, Vol. II" (P-5), and "Preludes, Vol. IV" (P-9). These also work quite well with Loeb's "Balinese Fantasies" (P-11). From Meridian Publications. (var.)	JP-1 $15.00 [III]
Preludes, Volume IV David Loeb Seven distinct preludes for solo piccolo. Unlike the previous volumes, these do not come from specific Asian traditions, although there are various influences. These combine well with both Volumes I & II. (var.)	P-9 $12.00 [III]
Reflections on Sephardic Melodies David Loeb To be performed in a singing manner, these melodies are derived from traditions of the Spanish-Jewish community more than five centuries ago. A marvelous challenge for the performer to assimilate tone and musicality. (var.)	P-13 $13.00 [III]
Row for Piccolo and Laurence Trott Jacob Stern A short, serious, expressive, contemporary solo work for piccolo. (3:05)	P-1 $4.00 [III]
Scenes from the Japanese Countryside David Loeb This work for solo piccolo contains two aspects of the Japanese countryside: Eight Views, depicting scenery, and A Land of Remote Valleys, inspired by the many and varied valleys. These are delightful small movements, full of color. (var.--about 17:00 total)	P-14 $12.00 [III]
		PICCOLO AND PIANO
		Acrobatics Jessica Kozlowski Trapeze, High Wire, Somersaults (and other vaults) A progressive collection of three solos designed to provide both practice and recital material. (6:00)	PP-15 $12.00 [II+]
		The "After the Holidays" Song Michael Isaacson A lyric reflection of the emotions we feel around holiday time. Beautifully set for the piccolo. (3:30)	PP-11 $10.00 [II]
		Baikal Journey, Part 2 Catherine McMichael (see Flute and Piano)	FP-55 $17.00
		Birds Michael Horwood Musical pieces depicting Horwood's eight aspects of birds. Mentally and musically stimulating. (11:30)	PP-4 $16.00 [V]
		Blue-eyed Grass Laura Pettigrew A charming, short piece inspired by the plant of the same name, also known as "star grass," which has a small flower that only opens in the morning, and sheds a tear when it is finished blooming. (3:15)	PP-19 $10.00 [II+]
		The Eldred Spell Collection, Vol. II, "A Night at the Opera" ed. Eldred Spell (see Flute and Piano)	FP-5 $13.00

March Miniature (from Orchestral Suite No. 1 in D Major, Opus 43) P. I. Tchaikovsky, trans. Tom Kennedy The fourth movement from this famous orchestral suite, arranged for piccolo and piano. Would be a delightful, light addition to a recital or great for an encore. (2:20)	PP-12 $10.00 [III]	Bits and Pieces Laura Walter These 10 etudes are each based on some tidbit from the flute repertoire. Discovering which pieces they come from may be intriguing and challenging. They offer another novel pattern to conquer in the flutist's enduring quest. Endorsed by Peter Lloyd for teaching sequential patterns. (var.)	E-6 $10.00 [IV]
Martha Flotow, ed. Eldred Spell (see Flute and Piano)	FP-6 $8.50	Etudes with a Purpose Victoria Jicha A complete listing of all the etudes from "Andersen Opus 30 & 33" and "Melodious & Progressive Studies, Books 1 & 2." This little gem addresses the needs of teachers and students alike. It categorizes the etude by technical issue. Etudes should be chosen to address specific needs, and this book does it!	E-800 $12.00
Niggun (Song Without Words) Michael Isaacson Premiered at the 1997 NFA Convention in Chicago.
